

ED LYELL (www.edlyell.com)

PRESENT POSITIONS:

Professor, Business and Economics, Adams State College, Alamosa, Colorado

Designer and Consultant for using computers, telecommunications and HighTouch/HighTech methods to dramatically improve school effectiveness by creating 21st Century Learning Communities.

EXPERIENCE:

Director (p/t), Conejos/Costilla County 21st Century Learning Communities Project. Funded by the US Dept. of Education.

Professor, Affiliate, Regis University Executive MBA programs (Internet Teaching)

Member, Colorado State Board for Community Colleges and Occupational Education 1999-2001

Project Director, Education Commission of the States. (Working with the Governor and Speaker of the Assembly - we developed a new agenda for California's schools)

Senior Fellow, Center for the New West, a 20-state non-profit independent think tank

Member, Colorado State Board of Education, elected from the Second Congressional District, 1989-95.

Chair, Telecommunications Advisory Commission to the Colorado Legislature, 1989-95

Other academic appointments:

- Metropolitan State College, Denver Associate Professor, Management and Marketing 1981-91
- The Colorado College, Assistant Professor Business/Economics 1978/80
- Univ. Colorado-Boulder/Denver Assist. Prof. Graduate School of Public Affairs,
- University of Colorado- Colorado Springs P/T Economics 1978/80
- University of Colorado – Boulder, Instructor, Marketing, Economics 1970-77

Consulting Clients have included:

- Education Commission of the States,
- Colorado Commission on Higher Education
- Colorado Legislative Joint Budget Committee,
- Western Governors Policy Office, and several individual Governors
- U.S. Department of Agriculture
- Local school districts in Colorado
- California Governor and Legislature

EDUCATION:

Doctor of Philosophy (Business Administration) (Ph.D.) 1977

University of Colorado-Boulder, (Professors Kenneth E. Boulding and J. Russell Nelson)
Dissertation "Cost Structure of Education- Governmental Policy in Steady State and Decline"

Master Business Administration, (MBA) 1970

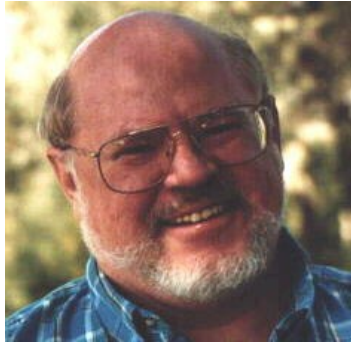

San Francisco State University Thesis, Computer Assisted Instruction in the Home

Bachelor of Arts. (B.A) 1968,

Communication, General Semantics San Francisco State University
(Professor S.I.Hayakawa)

Listed in "Who's Who in the World" 1985-present, Profiled in December 1993 Wired Magazine - <http://www.wired.com/wired/archive/1.06/lyell.html>

ED LYELL

In 1999 Colorado Governor Bill Owens appointed Dr. Lyell to the Colorado State Board for Community Colleges and Occupational Education. He has been an elected member of the Colorado State Board of Education, and Chair of the Colorado Telecommunications Advisory

He consults for government and business on innovative ways to design, operate and fund learning systems for children and adults. Dr. Lyell has his doctorate in Business Administration from the University of Colorado in Boulder where he studied with Kenneth E. Boulding. Dr. Lyell was a Senior Fellow at the Center for the New West, a 20-state think-tank headquartered in Denver. He is designing school systems based on using Just in Time Learning based on the integration of High Touch and High Tech techniques.

He has designed budgeting systems for the Colorado Higher Education system, and other organizations. His consulting with the U.S. Dept. of Agriculture changed the way information is reported throughout management by using microcomputers and led to 9,000 jobs being reduced or changed. Dr. Lyell is unique in having developed extensive analysis of the politics, methods, financing and governance of both K-12 education and higher education from a skill base developed in Business and governmental consulting.

Dr. Lyell has been a Professor of Management Strategy and Policy, Marketing, Economics, Quantitative techniques and ethics at several Universities including the University of Colorado, The Colorado College and Metropolitan State College. He has taught at the freshman through Ph.D. levels. Dr. Lyell has been staff or consultant to the Colorado Commission on Higher Education, National Center for Higher Education Management Systems (NCHEMS), Legislative Joint Budget Committee (JBC), and several governors.

Dr. Lyell is the first in his family to complete junior high school and was raised in a San Francisco neighborhood where more of his friends went to prison than college. While a student government leader at San Francisco State College in the 1960's he completed his first degree with general semantics Professor, and later U. S. Senator, S. I. Hayakaya. Dr. Lyell worked for Dr. Hayakaya when he was President of SFSC.

Ed was a scoutmaster and explorer leader for 15 years. In the 1970's and 80's, he was a licensed white water river guide working rivers throughout the western states, and training outward bound instructors. An advocate for the arts and sports, his first career goal was professional music studying under the first chair of the San Francisco Symphony orchestra and started San Francisco State University as a music major. He had also been offered college scholarships for football and baseball, and a minor league contract for pitching.

He has one son, Kelly who lives with his wife Lynne in Fort Collins, Colorado with their two sons. He has two stepdaughters; Heather with her husband and two daughters, and Erin and her husband and two children.